“I Will Show You How to Make Money, Even When Others Are Losing Their Shirts”

Dr. Bart DiLiddo, VectorVest Founder

Please Note: The only reason to buy or sell any stock is to make money. But you need the right kind of analysis BEFORE you make a move. Nobody analyzes stocks like VectorVest. Not Merrill Lynch. Not Wachovia. Not even Goldman Sachs. Now get “SPOT-ON” analysis for any stock with just 3-computer clicks.

Some plain talk about a simple way to quickly and easily analyze stocks for profit potential before you buy or sell.

Dear Investor,

YES! It's amazing but true. Now you can become a confident investor making 20%, 40%, 60%, 90% profits or more a year. You will have the confidence of buying and selling the right stocks at the right time. All you need is access to the amazing stock analysis research tool that gives you clear “BUY”, “SELL”, or “HOLD” signals based on nothing more than scientific, mathematical formulas. No hunch. No opinion. No guesswork.

There are really only two ways to jump in or out of the market. The first way is based on HUNCH/INTUITION. This could include rumor, or a recommendation from a stockbroker or a taxi driver. You could lose your shirt this way.

The better way is to do “intelligent unbiased research and analysis”. The question is, how do you “analyze?” How do you become a “confident” investor?

Let's face it. There are mountains of data available. Value data. Safety data. Timing data. You could analyze interest rates, inflation rates, growth trends, dividend reports, volume of trading activity, bull market hopes, bear market fears... it could drive you nuts and take you literally years to digest it all.

Or, you could visit the VectorVest link below and let us do the analysis for you. Every day we digest tons of new information and give you the daily BUY signals, SELL signals, or HOLD signals you need to make superior profits in the stock market. With just 2 or 3 mouse clicks you can see exactly what is going on with a stock, with the sector and the market as a whole. And the good news: We've never been on the wrong side of a major market move in the last 20 years.

How to become a confident investor:

If you take all the relevant stock market information and boil it down to what you need to know... to profitably invest in today's chaotic up and down market... it takes three things to become a confident investor:

1 First, you must ask, is this stock a good VALUE? If the company is sitting on a ton of cash and just got awarded some hefty, profitable contracts and is managed like a fine Swiss Watch, then the VALUE of a stock is worth considering. If the company's profits are in the tank but the stock price is still moving up, this too should be considered.

2 Second, is this stock a SAFE investment compared to AAA corporate bonds? Most everyone agrees that Triple “A” bonds are the safest way you can go. So, when doing your analysis about a stock... how does it stack up in safety? We have devised a mathematical formula to reveal its relative safety and intrinsic safety in relation to bonds.

3 And finally, does this stock have good TIMING? We discovered that timing is its own monster. You can have a good stock, with good earnings, paying a good dividend, and good relative safety... and it can still have lousy timing. Or... you can also have a lousy company stock with good timing and still come out the winner. With that thought in mind, we created a “killer” mathematical timing model that lets you win the timing side of investing.

With these thoughts in mind, we created a mathematical model that rates every stock in our database to show you its VALUE... SAFETY and TIMING ratings.

We call these three ratings RV, RS and RT. (Relative Value, Relative Safety and Relative Timing.) The ratings go from 0 to 2. If the RV, RS or RT is above 1, that is a good sign. If it's below 1, that is a bad sign. A stock with a RV rating is say, a 1.77. That is an excellent sign. Then, you check to see that it's RS rating of 0.34. Right away you know this is not a SAFE stock. But it might have a timing rating of 1.55. That's a good sign. When you add up the combination, you might get a “VST” (Value, Safety, Timing) rating of 1.45... which is very good. Keep reading. You'll get clear BUY, SELL or HOLD signals on over 15,500 stocks.

Allow us to brag here for just a moment: Nobody, but nobody analyzes stocks like VectorVest. And all this daily analysis is not in vain. We've made tons of money for ourselves and our subscribers. See the testimonials nearby.

We have created what we feel is the very best stock market analysis software program you could ever hope to find. And it's one that allows you to invest with confidence. And it allows you to sleep well at night.

No matter what kind of investor you are... a long term investor, a day trader, a blue chip investor, a stock shorter, an aggressive player, a prudent investor, or someone who wants to ride the wave of the stock market ups and downs, options, ETFs... you name it... you'll be thrilled to know that the VectorVest Stock Analysis system is the hot, up-to-date, investment information that makes you a “fearless” investor. Even if you've never bought stocks before.

Here's Proof:

Congratulations
Mr. David Price - 2nd Prize Winner of CNBC's Million Dollar Portfolio Challenge

How did he beat all but two other guys in a contest of over 254,000 contestants? Of course, he used VectorVest. According to David, VectorVest was the catalyst that sent him to the top ranks of the contest. He implemented our “Stalwarts” strategy, buying the top four stocks when the contest began on May 12, 2008. This quickly moved him into the top 25...

Can you see why we say this is the most important individual investment tool ever created?

Turn $100,000 into $2.5 Million--

Using any of these built-in strategies can make you money. But if you use our recommended bullish strategy of the week when we signal a confirmed up in the market and our bearish strategy of the week after we've signaled a confirmed down, you can make a fortune!

If you had done so between 1998 and 2008... you could have sky-rocketed a mere $100,000 into a whopping $2.50 MILLION ($2,500,713) in just ten years. Look at the chart below—

Buying at the bottom, selling at the top—mixed with shorting at the top, covering at the bottom resulted in a $2.40 million dollar gain starting with just $100,000. It may sound too good to be true, but our market timing system has never failed to signal a major market move.

You owe yourself, your family and your financial future to stop what you're doing and check this out for yourself RISK-FREE. This investment analysis tool quickly gives you the kind of investing leverage others could only dream about. It's a way to safely and confidently move in and out of the market.

Safe returns and preservation of capital is the name of the game. Timing is the name of the game. Value is the name of the game.

“I just wanted to let you know that since using VectorVest, my portfolio is up 45% in about the last 45 days! I can't even believe it. I just do what you tell me to do it's that easy.”

—J.M., Riverside, CA

“I made three purchases during my trial membership period that more than paid for the annual membership fee.”

—E.L. Jr. Fairbault, NM

“I've only had VectorVest 2 months, but it has already improved my profit by 50%. One of the first stocks that VectorVest helped me pick is Owens Illinois (OI). I bought Owens on 10/15/07 and now up 300% in 2 months. I am very impressed with every aspect of VectorVest. I have had to change the way I do things a little, but it has all been for the better. I have better picks and spend less time doing it.”

—G.K., Hayward, CA

“I am currently using your trial to VectorVest. Your VST indicator is so powerful. It is giving me very attractive returns in a matter of days using the top VST stocks for my option trading. Many organizations teach how to trade stocks and options costing thousands of dollars, however, none of those has the ability to show anyone how to select stocks. That is the name of the game.”

—G.T. Houston, TX

“I have made $3.5 million shorting stocks; most were chosen on VectorVest. I followed your advice and it paid off. I have done considerably better than my friends and associates.”

—D.J.M., Detroit Lakes, MN.

“I've tried nearly every software program in the business... AIQ, Telescan, Super Charts, you name it. VectorVest Online is absolutely the best. I don't use or need anything else.”

—E.J.C. Naples, FL

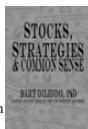

“VectorVest prevents me from buying overvalued stocks. It is amazing how many of those are hyped by other analysts. I have passed on many stocks which were recommended by other analysts, but don't pass VectorVest muster and I missed out only on big losses.”

—G.B., San Luis Obispo CA
